

A Joyful Place to Learn, Collaborate, and Grow

	As scholars	As citizens	As seekers
Adult Promise Statements	Students will develop a love of learning. They will engage in experiences that foster critical and creative thinking and will be prepared for the next steps in their educational journeys.	Students will see themselves as members of a collaborative community, acting with integrity and respect for all. They will recognize and celebrate diverse abilities, cultures, and perspectives.	Students will construct knowledge through inquiry. Students will feel free to take risks, to make mistakes, to have fun, and to challenge themselves and others.
Student Pledge Statements	I am prepared for and excited about learning. I pay attention to what other people say, do, and believe. I am a creative, thoughtful, and flexible thinker. I do my best!	I am an active and positive part of my community. I respect and learn from the ideas of all other students. I behave in ways that are fair and just and help others to do the same. I am welcomed and welcoming!	I am curious and open-minded. I take risks, make mistakes, keep trying and admit when I am wrong. I make healthy choices for my mind and body. I have fun!
